DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. The previous restriction requirement (dated February 9, 2006) has now been withdrawn in view of the amendment filed on March 9, 2006, which cancels Claims 28-31 directed to Species B. Claims 24-27 and 32-38 are now pending as noted below.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Paul R. Katterle on May 25, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In Claim 36, the phrase of "parallel to" (lines 3-4) has been replaced with --away from--; and the phrase of "perpendicular to" (line 4) has been replaced with --coinciding with--.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The prior art does not teach all of the limitations of the claimed invention including bending the electrical conductor away from the surface of the structure and toward one of the end portions of the structure to form a transition between the first and second layers (as recited in Claim 24).

The reference to Rechel (U. S. Patent 3,368,176), as applied in the last Office Action (Non-Final Rejection, dated August 11, 2005) teaches bending the electrical conductor (e.g. 17 or 24) away from the structure (e.g. 23). However, Rechel does not teach that the electrical conductor is bent toward one of the end portions of the structure to form a transition between the first and second layers. To modify Rechel by bending the conductors toward one of the end portions of the structure would destroy the structure of the conductors and thus, the invention, of Rechel.

Accordingly, Claims 24-27 and 32-38 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
